Watch for that big 12 people act at the Pavilion the first three days of next week.

Walter F. Field has returned to his home in Hardwick, after a few days' stay at the home of W. A. Lane.

Miss Anna Zaster of Westerville was brought to the City hospital yesterday.

Miss Zaster will undergo an operation.

Special for Saturday, 100 copies of popular music; your choice, three copies for 25c. Mrs. H. S. Miles, 70 North Main street.

George Richert, who has been the guest of friends in the city for the past few days, returned to his home at Watertown, Mass., to-day.

Miss Maude Murchie, who has been visiting as the guest of friends on Hill street for the past few days, returned to-day to her home at Wells River.

Mrs. Lucy Slayton, who has been spending several days with relatives in this city and Montpelier, returned to-day to her home in Morrisville.

Choice Saturday offerings at the Barre Candy Kitchen: Old-fashioned molasses candy, 15c per lb.; chewing candy, 15c per lb.; peach blossoms, 15c per lb. Call at Mascott's for your fresh candies!

To Our Patrons: We wish to announce that on Saturday, March 14, we will re-open our store for business, having been closed for the past month on account of damage to our stock by fire.

We have just received a full line of all kinds of fruit and confectionery and will be ready to serve our customers as in the past. We will welcome all. Vermont Fruit Store, 155 North Main street.

William Esmond of Cheshire, Ill., the western horse dealer who has been in charge of a carload of horses at the Slayton stables for the past week, yesterday shipped a consignment of 12 of the horses to Bethel, where they will be used for farm purposes. The horses were accompanied by W. W. Perkins. The carload of horses arrived in the city about a week ago and were placed in the Slayton stables on South Main street. The carload numbered 30 steeds, about half remaining. Mr. Esmond will remain in the city until he disposes of the horses.

Funeral services for Miss Violet McLeod, daughter of Mrs. George McLeod of Railroad street, were held at the house this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment was made in Hope cemetery. The child was born in this city 12 years ago and had made her home with her mother until recently. A few weeks ago she was stricken with pneumonia and the attending physician ordered her removed to a hospital. Her death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier Wednesday evening.

Chief Sinclair of the police department has received a request from State Attorney T. E. Hopkins of Chittenden county to be on the lookout for one Maxime Seymour, alias Simard, Mike Hamilton and Jack Hamilton. Seymour is charged with burglarizing the Central Vermont station at Winooski on the night of Feb. 22, when a considerable sum of money and several mileage books were stolen. The Burlington sheriff's department and detectives are on the trail of Seymour and circulars have been sent to many of the larger centers in the East. He is described as a smooth-faced young man, five feet, eight inches in height, and weighing 150 pounds. He is 18 years old, the circular says, and looks younger.

A winter's program of social functions undertaken by the Italian Athletic club will culminate in the opera house on the evening of Saturday, March 21, with a three-act drama, a snappy little farce and an Italian opera program. A number of Barre's best amateur actors will be seen in "L'Amante Burlato," a three-act drama of power, and "So Tutto," the farce. Each piece has been presented by some of the finest Italian actors on the boards to-day and local patrons of the Italian drama are eagerly awaiting the presentations. In the cast of characters appear such well known names as Eda Carusi, G. Petrolini, G. Simonelli, Oreste Goffino, V. Ossola, P. Franzini and Fiorina Bottiggi. "So Tutto" in the English is "I Know All," and people who have witnessed some of the early rehearsals speak highly of its merits. A trio consisting of G. Simonelli, Frank Card and L. Pratini will render several selections and a duo of Italian musicians who came to Barre recently from New York, will give renderings from Verdi's "Il Trovatore," F. Amoro's "Valzer," and Toscanini's "Vittorio." Special cars have been arranged for the convenience of Montpelier patrons.

Barre people will be interested in a Florida newspaper account of a reunion of Vermonters which took place at the Blue Lake clubhouse, Deland, Fla., Feb. 25. Fifty-four sons and daughters of the old Green Mountain state were present, 22 of this number attending from Cassadaga and the others from various localities, including Deland and Daytona, where a number of winter visitors from Barre and vicinity are wont to stop. The Florida paper states that the clubhouse is situated in the midst of a bright green field with Blue lake just beyond, bordered with tall pines, a location ideally suited for the reunion. A bountiful dinner was served and after tables and dishes had been cleared away music and speeches were in order. Nearly everyone was called upon for a quotation, a song or remarks. Among those who spoke at length were M. P. Barry of Saxtons River, N. L. Divoll of Rockingham, and G. W. Morse of Williams-town.

TALK OF THE TOWN

King Baggott at the Bijou to-day.

New spring curtains all in at Fitts'.

See the new wash goods at Vaughan's.

Miss Lizzie Camp of Randolph Center arrived in the city to-day to pass a few days as the guest of friends.

Superintendent Frank D. Sartell of the Presby-Coykendall Co., left last night on a business trip to Boston.

The reopening of the Vermont Fruit store will be held to-morrow. The public of Barre is urged to visit the store.

Misses Rowell and Walker are not superstitious, as they begin their reduction sale following the recent fire Friday, the 13th. See adv.

Henry Brown of Allen street is installing a 3,000 egg Candee hot water incubator. He expects to supply the trade in day-old chicks and do custom hatching.

A big special show to-day, "Ivanhoe," a big four-act L. M. P. drama, featuring King Baggott and Leah Baird. This feature was taken in England. Be sure and see this at the Bijou.

Our campaign is now in full swing! Saturday we are offering two pounds of our regular 20c fresh home-made fancy chocolates in four flavors for 25c. Only one of our tempting week-end offerings. New England Fruit Store.

Mrs. Mary Cook and her son, Louis, returned yesterday from St. Daniers, P. Q., where they were called by the serious illness and death of the former's father.

Louis Cook visited his brother, Francis, at St. Anselm's college in Brandon, Que. To make way for the proposed annex to the Trow & Holden plant on South Main street, the house just south of the company's buildings will be sold at public auction Saturday afternoon. The building is to be moved to another site and work on the addition will be started as soon as possible.

The management of the Burlington high school baseball team announced to-day its schedule for the coming year. The schedule calls for a large number of games. Goddard seminary will play Burlington May 5, and the return game will be played in this city June 5. Games with Spaulding have not yet been definitely settled.

Everett Bradley, who has been employed at the Morrison sales stables on Bateholder street for the past six months, was called to Moretown yesterday to care for a relative, who has been ill since New Year's. His place at the stables is filled by Guy Thompson, formerly of Williamstown, who recently returned from a year's stay in the Canadian Northwest.

The Vermont Fruit Store will open its doors to-morrow for the first time since the fire that damaged the structure many weeks ago. The store has been thoroughly remodeled and to-day the establishment will rival any similar business in the state. Make it a point to-morrow to visit our store and look at our entire new line of stock.—Adv.

MONTPELIER.

Objection made by the defendant in the suit of Harriet Bailey's administrator against the Vermont Savings bank of Brattleboro against the trustee account, was sustained in Washington county court by Judge Slack yesterday, on the grounds that there was a misjoinder. This limits the action to a deposit of $1,800 made in the name of Harriet Bailey in 1892 and eliminates from the suit deposits of $76,000 made in the name of Harry Lowe, trustee. The case then proceeded before the jury.

"How Shall I Charge Up the money you pay for Life Insurance," said the cashier to the smart business man, to expense?" "No," said the smart business man, "open an appreciation account. It represents what I am going to try to do if I live, and what I am certain to do if I die." National Life Ins. Co., of Vt. (Mutual.) S. S. Ballard, general agent, Lawrence building, Montpelier, Vt.

WEST TOPSHAM.

Valley Grange Held Most Interesting Meeting.

The Waits River Valley grange, No. 320, held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, March 10, with a good attendance; various granges being represented. Among the visitors were E. H. Hallett of St. Johnsbury, a lecturer of the Vermont state grange; also T. A. Hun-

kins of Bradford, district deputy. The program consisted of songs and a debate, the question being: Resolved, that it is better to be a farmer's wife than the wife of a professional man. The affirmative side won, the judges being E. H. Hallett, T. A. Hunkins and R. C. Mills. Suggestions for the good of the order were made by Messrs. Hallett and Hunkins, and the former gave a very interesting lecture on agriculture. At the next regular meeting the first and second degrees will be conferred.
